Ike Wires His 'Envy' to Dinner of Senior Golfers

President Dwight D. Eisenhower was present in spirit with his fellow members of the Palm Springs Desert Senior Golf Association at the victory banquet last night at Thunderbird.

The President, who is an honorary member of the organization, sent the following telegram to President B. F. Shearer, who read it at the dinner:

"At the moment there is nothing I envy my brother Edgar more than the privilege of sitting down with my fellow members of the Palm Springs Desert Senior Golf Association at dinner this evening. I know that it will be an enjoyable affair. I wish I could be with you." Signed, Dwight D. Eisenhower.

The President's brother, Edgar, is currently vacationing and golfing in the Village.

Knight to Form Ike Delegation

SACRAMENTO — Gov. Goodwin J. Knight pressed plans today to form a Republican delegation for the June 5 California primary election pledged to President Eisenhower.

The President's statement yesterday that he has no objections to his name being entered in presidential primaries was interpreted as a green light by Knight.

"I am delighted," the governor said. "I intend to proceed immediately with the formation of an Eisenhower-pledged delegation in California."

The governor said that in the "very near future" he will appoint a committee to select a delegation pledged to Mr. Eisenhower.

If the President gives his written approval to a delegation headed by Knight, he is irrevocably committed to run in California since the law does not permit a candidate to withdraw once he has given his consent.

ON THE FAMED OLD "GOLD ROAD" TO KINGMAN, ARIZONA, The desert tortoise is built for speed, even if he can't make it. His shell offers the least resistance to air, wind and water. On the old road from the desert to Kingman there is a very dangerous precipice. An old timer told me they had a warning sign up for two years, but no one fell over so they took it down. . . . We cigarette and pipe smoking folks should give a thought to how we must smell to a SKUNK.

Living Costs Drop Slightly in December

WASHINGTON — The cost of living dropped slightly in December at the close of the most stable year since 1940, the government reported today.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics said its consumer price index fell three-tenths of 1 per cent between November and December to 114.7 per cent of average 1947-49 prices. This was the first drop in the index since August.

The December index also was three-tenths of 1 per cent higher than in December, 1954. Over the year, however, it fluctuated within a range of less than 1 per cent.

The December drop was due mainly to price declines of 2.4 per cent for 1956 cars and 3.1 per cent for used cars at the dealer level. Lower prices for food and house furnishings also contributed to the decline.

852 of Korea's Dead Head Home

YOKOSUKA, Japan — The first of the 852 unknown American dead of the Korean War were on their way "home" today.

The cruiser USS Manchester sailed for Honolulu with 50 American sailors, soldiers, airmen and marines who died in the three-year war against Communism for burial in American soil. Their final resting place will be the National Memorial Cemetery in Honolulu.

All four services paid tribute to the unidentified dead in a solemn 45-minute doleful ceremony. Four flag-draped caskets symbolized the unknown dead of the Army, Navy, Marines and Air Force.

March of Dimes Returns Starting to Come In

First returns in the annual March of Dimes fund campaign have started to come in, it was reported today by Mrs. Sidney Niles and Mrs. N. H. Curtis, co-chairmen.

The two women agreed to head the campaign after it appeared that further delay in organization might endanger the success of the drive.

Committee chairmen announced today are:

SCHOOL CARDS. Mrs. Ralph Weinstein; Mothers' March. Mrs. John Holditch; Mrs. Eugene E. Theriault; Mrs. Earl Hough; Milk Bottles. Mrs. George Morris; Cansisters. Mrs. Esbitt; Contribution Cards. Mrs. Joe Henderson; Advance Gifts. Warren Linville and Mrs. August Kettmann; Trailer Parks. Herb Richardson.

Four fund raising events are scheduled to date: Arthur Murray Studio Dance today; distribution of school cards on Monday; Mothers' March on January 31, and March of Dimes Ball at Elks Club, February 4.

THE FUND CAMPAIGN at the high school will start January 30 and continue one week. Members of the Journalism class in charge of the project are Jean Staley and Melinda Hough.

"The campaign is very important to residents of Palm Springs and Riverside county as approximately $60,000 a year is spent for polio care in the county," Mrs. Niles and Mrs. Curtis said.

"Of this amount, only $1800 is spent for administration, and the remainder for care of victims," the co-chairmen added.

The county had 39 cases in 1955, and an average of 54 cases a year since 1948.

WAL Peace Talks Sought Monday

LOS ANGELES — An attempt will be made to reopen negotiations Monday between Western Air Lines and the striking Brotherhood of Railway Clerks. Operations of the airline were suspended January 9 when 850 clerks struck in a contract dispute.

Leverett Edwards, chairman of the National Mediation Board, notified the company he would come here this weekend. Edwards said he hoped the company and union could re-sume negotiations Monday. The union seeks a $50 across the board monthly wage increase and a union shop. The company has offered an 8 per cent sliding scale pay increase and rejected the union shop demand.

Edwards said he also will try to get the airline to resume contract negotiations with the Air Line Pilots Assn. Negotiations with the pilots were broken off and the union threatened a strike before the clerks walked out.

BUFFETED MILITARY SHIP CRASHES INTO RADAR TOWER OFF CAPE COD

BOSTON — The 5200-ton Sagitta, a Military Transport Service ship, rammed into the Texas radar island off Cape Cod today while attempting to unload supplies in heavy seas. The ship radioed it was "listing seriously" and its 42 crewmen were "standing by the lifeboats."

The vessel was reported trying to make port despite a hole in her starboard side.

AN AIR Defense spokesman who contacted the tower by telephone some 100 miles off the Atlantic Coast, said that none of the 82 officers and enlisted men stationed at the radar observation post had been injured.

"There is no danger of the tower falling into the sea," he said.

The Sagitta hit the radar station while trying to unload fuel and water onto the three-legged tower on George's Bank.

The accident occurred at 9:40 a.m. EST.

SHORTLY BEFORE noon, the Sagitta radioed that she was starting for Boston under her own power at five knots.

The Coast Guard said the 153-mile trip in the heavy seas would take about 10 hours. However, it was expected the Coast Guard cutter Evergreen would intercept the Sagitta and take her in tow.

The crash cut an eight-inch gash in the hull of the transport and its No. 2 hold filled with water.

The tower is staffed by 82 enlisted men and officers of the Air Force.

The three-legged Texas tower radar station was turned over to the government about six weeks ago, first of a series of 40 off-shore "eyes and ears" of the nation's air defense.

Mayor Florian Boyd's Coordinating Council will hold its first meeting of the new year at noon Friday, February 4, at a place to be designated.

The Council is composed of presidents, or appointed representatives, of all civic organizations in the Village.

Main topic of discussion is expected to be the proposed $3,555,000 bond election set for February 14.

Among other items expected to be brought up by those in attendance are: Cooperation of all groups in clearing dates for events through the Chamber of Commerce, and the possibility of establishing a Palm Springs Blood Bank to be used by all citizens in need.

$280,000 GOLD TAKEN FROM TRUCK IN EUROPE'S BIGGEST ROBBERY

GENEVA, Switzerland — Police sent out a five-nation alert today for a casual set of thieves who made off with a pickup truck containing $280,000 in gold bullion while its lone driver sipped coffee in a restaurant.

Theft of the 250 kilograms (550 pounds) of gold from the unguarded truck was believed to have been the largest such haul in European history. The robbery occurred in broad daylight on a busy street.

Swiss police officials notified Interpol, the international police organization, and police of Italy, France, Germany and Austria set up screens along their borders with Switzerland to try and intercept the quarter-ton of bullion.

"An international dragnet has been spread in an effort to catch the men who committed the crime," a Swiss police spokesman said. "We have alerted all border points."

The truck, a simple pickup truck without armor, was recovered in a Geneva suburb shortly after the robbery. It was empty.

The driver had been sent to the airport to pick up 10 heavy boxes which had been shipped by Air

Shoot on Sight, Order in Bombay

BOMBAY, India — City authorities issued a "shoot on sight" order to Bombay police today when a four-day orgy of rioting began degenerating into general hooliganism and looting.

Police opened fire at two places, killing one person and injuring two others as the officers broke up looting of a store and halted hoodlums who were hurling rocks at suburban trains.

The anti-government rioting over restricting of Indian states already had spread to eastern India where mobs paralyzed rail traffic and burned homes and shops of Hindu-speaking persons.

CONSIDINE REMINISCES ON THE PERILS OF EDITING

Editor's Note: Bob Considine, star International News Service reporter and columnist, today is guest columnist for Bill Rashall in "Unedited."

By BOB CONSIDINE
Unedited is a natural name for a column. Most of them are, I've decided over the years. Which may be a little unkind to say . . .

But I've had some interestingly unedited things printed since managing to slip into this writing dodge 25 years ago, man and boy.

There was a football story, written years ago, in which I tried to get as lyrical as all get-out in the very first sentence. I wrote, "Old Abb Normal's courageous gridders reached the height of immortality today in defeating Farouk U. in the Wassail Bowl." It came out in the paper, "Old Abb Normal's courageous gridders reached the height of IMMORTALITY today, etc. . . ."

I covered the finals of the national indoor tennis championship some years ago when Don McNeill won it. Don had hair that was a cross between blond and white. I started my story, "Tow-headed Don McNeill today won the etc., etc. . . ." Through every edition of the N. Y. Daily Mirror it ran, "Two-headed Don McNeill . . ." Nobody complained. Apparently, tabloid readers believe all tennis players have two heads. Which is not true, of course. I've known several with three.

At the Dr. Sam Sheppard trial in Cleveland a year ago the jury was taken one day to the scene of the murder. The lake-front home where the foul deed had been performed lay sightless and abandoned in the dirty snow of a gray November day. I tried to get some of the forlorn air of the place in the story I dictated.

" . . . the flotsam and jetsam of the greasy lake had spilled into the littered yard," I called in over the phone.

It came out, " . . . the flumox and gypsum of the greasy lake had spilled into the littered yard."

THE NEW YORKER magazine picked it up and commented: "Probably has something to do with Sodom and Dannemora." (Editor's Note: Dannemora is a state prison in New York.)

But edited or unedited, Bill Rashall and I are in a real good business. The more you travel around the earth the more you comprehend just how much this country of ours is the lone haven of press freedom. Tom Jefferson (who dreamed of extending the United States across the breadth of the wild continent, even to the desert which was in time to hold Palm Springs) once wrote that if he had his choice of a nation without a government or a nation without newspapers he'd have to vote for a nation with newspapers.

Anyway, it's better than working for a living, eh Bill?

NEW SHOP TOOLS and equipment for the Palm Springs Boys Club will be bought with the check Judge Eugene E. Theriault, president of the Palm Springs Lions Club, is presenting to Walter Cowan, president of the board of directors of the Boys Club. The check is for $500, and will be spent through local merchants to start a foundation of equipment for the boys. Theriault made the presentation yesterday at Chi Chi, where Lions held their regular weekly meeting. (Desert Sun Photo).

Five Victims Also Handed Parking Writs

Late Drinking, Monkey Purchase Lead to It All

Seven persons were cited for traffic violations, two for drunk driving, following a multiple freak collision in the early morning hours on North Palm Canyon Drive near Via Escuela.

Two men, Dean Howard Hancock, 25, of 340 North Calle Marcus, and George Ritchie Sangster, a 37-year-old airplane pilot from San Gabriel, were fined $210 each, with the option of spending 40 days in jail, after they were arrested for driving into a total of six parked cars in the 2000 and 2100 blocks of Palm Canyon Drive.

According to police investigators Bob Johnson and Bill Madsen, Sangster had been drinking in a downtown bar, and as closing time approached, bought a motorcycle to take back to San Gabriel.

WHEN THE BAR closed, he was approached by Hancock, who offered to show him the way out of town. Hancock started driving north in his car, and Sangster followed, the monkey by his side.

Sangster said he had a hard time keeping up with his director, and as he approached the 2000 block, saw Hancock swerve to the right to miss an oncoming auto. Sangster said he too swerved, struck soft sand, and was unable to stop the car before striking the first of five cars parked in front of a hotel.

After striking the rear end of the first car, police said, he knocked a chunk of metal into the rear of the second car, missed hitting it with his car, and traveled on to hit the last three rear ends jutting out.

HANDCOCK STOPPED when he saw the collisions, and started to turn around to help. While backing, his car struck a new convertible.

Police arrived, took the two into custody and to the station. They the officers returned to cite each of the five cars for illegal parking. The monkey has not been seen since the crash, and the pilot is on his way to San Gabriel now to fly a load of pedigreed dogs to a show in San Francisco.

Strong Reserve Needed, Reich Tells Lions Club

A strong reserve is the nation's best guarantee of peace, Capt. Herman Reich, USNR, told Palm Springs Lions club members and guests Thursday noon in the Starlite Room of the Chi Chi.

Capt. Reich talked on the subject of "Our Nation's Defenses." He was introduced by Francis F. Crocker, chairman for the day.

HE SPOKE OF attendance at the War College held in Washington last year to which he was sent by the Navy as a representative of the Eleventh Naval District. Top men from the Army, Air Force, Navy, Marine Corps and leading civilian scientists, economists and others were present for the sessions.

Capt. Reich told of the benefits members of the reserve receive, the educational possibilities in all of the new fields of electronics, nuclear power and other new developments, the new weapons and the courses which are of great advantage in civilian life.

HE SAID THAT to maintain an army large enough to preserve the peace would bankrupt the nation but that a potential army of 12,000,000 could be maintained through adequate use of the reserve.

He urged his listeners to impress upon the youth of the nation the great educational and occupational advantages of the reserve forces.

MAYPOLE EULOGIZED BY AREA DEMOCRATIC CLUB

Members of the Palm Springs Area Democratic Club's executive committee met yesterday on learning of the death of Senator George Maypole and expressed themselves as terribly shocked at the news.

"He was the founder, first president and president emeritus of our club," the committee said. "He brought us up from a handful to the largest Democratic organization in Riverside county in two years. He brought distinguished visitors to address us, for he was himself a most distinguished winter resident."

"A VALIANT DEFENDER of the two party system, he had firm friends in both parties nevertheless, for he was first and foremost a gentleman—cultured, handsome and hospitable to all races, creeds and colors."

"A major operation last summer took so much out of him that it was felt at the age of 72 he should take a less active part in public affairs this year. He attended meetings, however, and on January 6 when Carl Kegley was introduced as a Congressional candidate, the Senator surprised all by appearing and making a short speech, praising the calibre of men who were seeking the post this year. After Mrs. Maypole had offered a ceremony to the woman bringing in the most members, the Senator said he was giving a copy of "Cross My Heart" to the man who brought in the most members."

"HE NEVER LOOKED in better health than on this last occasion when he addressed the membership. It was hoped that his post-operative troubles and subsequent heart attacks were now a thing of the past. So it was a real shock for us to learn of his death from an unsuspected leukemia."

"He was a great friend of Palm Springs. We join the community in expressing to his widow and family our profound sorrow over their great loss."

Bank of America to Issue Stock to Shareholders

Subscription rights to 1,600,000 shares of additional common stock of Bank of America, at a preferential price, will be issued to all shareholders if this action is approved by the bank's stockholders at a special meeting to be held on March 6, 1956, in San Francisco.

Transferable warrants will be issued to shareholders of record on a date set by the Board of Directors following the special meeting, at which time the preferential subscription price will also be determined.

This announcement was made by S. Clark Beise, president of the bank, following a meeting of the bank's Board of Directors in San Francisco this week. At the meeting a special committee of the Board recommended that the number of outstanding shares be increased to 25,600,000 and the amount of capital stock be increased to $160,000,000.

At current prices, economists figure the average industrial worker earns the price of a pound of round steak in 29 minutes. In 1929 it took 49 minutes.

PRETTY BARBARA Jean (Bunne) Burk, 17-year-old Big Bear High School senior, who was selected as the "Snow Queen" of the mountain resorts, will represent Big Bear in the contest to pick the 1956 California Orange Queen to reign over the forty-first National Orange Show in San Bernardino March 8 to 15. The California Orange Queen will be selected the night of February 10 at the Swing auditorium, National Orange Show grounds.

Truant's Outing Ends in Rescue By Helicopter

PALOS VERDES ESTATES (AP)—Eight Torrance High School students decided that playing hooky was not worth while.

The youths cut classes and descended a 200-foot-cliff at Bluff Cove. They were swimming when one of them, James Flemmings, 16, Torrance, suffered cramps. He was rescued 50 feet offshore by a companion, Walter Lee, 16, also Torrance.

Hermosa Beach Lifeguards administered artificial respiration to the victim and then a North American Aviation helicopter lifted him from the beach to an ambulance at the top of the steep cliff. The youth was taken to a hospital in serious condition.

FIRST DIRECTORIES of 1956 are delivered to the police department by their publisher, Joe Jackson, center. Sgt. Bill Lux looks over the new city book, while clerk Mary Heffner takes a pile to distribute to the various departments. About 8,000 books will be distributed to residents in the Desert Empire during the next two weeks. (Desert Sun Photo).

8,000 City Directories Distributed in Palm Springs

The first of 8,000 city directories for 1956 were delivered in the Village today by Joe Jackson, publisher.

There are 11,748 listings in the new book. They comprise all residents more than 20 years old who live in Palm Springs, Rancho Mirage, Thunderbird and Tamarisk areas, Cathedral City, Wonder Palms, Thousand Palms, and the homes surrounding.

Jackson said the listings show that the present population of Palm Springs is 13,800, adding the persons younger than 20, and should reach 14,000 by the time the March census is taken.

The book, published annually by Jackson's firm, Western Directory Company, lists residents, their

Winter's Worst Snowstorm Hits Half of Nation

By UNITED PRESS

Winter's biggest snowstorm blew into the East today, leaving a heavy snow cover stretching half way across the nation.

The three-day storm was already blamed for six deaths from Texas to Pennsylvania.

IN THE EAST, there was 4 inches of snow at Baltimore, Md., and 5 inches in Central Pennsylvania. West Virginia also had snow, and a mixture of rain, sleet, or freezing rain coated the Carolinas and Virginia.

The forecast of 3 to 5 inches of snow in New York City came just as a four-day strike of fuel delivery men ended and 3000 drivers went back to work. Mayor Robert C. Wagner had planned to declare an emergency if settlement was not reached.

THE BIG storm was born in the Gulf of Mexico and struck first at Texas, where two deaths occurred and as much as 15 inches of snow piled up. The storm rolled northeastward, breaking serious droughts in some areas and dumping 8 inches of snow on the Southern Illinois city of Cairo.

Ike on Radio Tonight for GOP

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower makes his first major public appearance since his heart attack tonight to help the Republican Party raise millions of dollars for the 1956 campaign.

The Chief Executive will be principal speaker at one of the hundreds of "Salute to Eisenhower" dinner rallies being staged by the GOP National Finance Committee from coast to coast. The occasion is the third anniversary of Mr. Eisenhower's inauguration.

MR. EISENHOWER will not attend the eating part of the Washington dinner. But he will motor to the Sheraton Park Hotel in time to address fellow Republicans across the country by closed-circuit television and over the radio networks on a 30-minute program beginning at 10 p.m. EST (7 p.m. PST).

The President probably will devote most of his eight or 10-minute speech at the end of the program to encouraging a highly active effort by Republicans in the fall campaigns and to thanking the rank-and-file GOP members for their support during the past three years.

Las Vegas Says Women Quit Betting at -$14

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—The average woman who gambles at the casinos here is a 38-year-old housewife who will quit if her losses reach $14.

She prefers not to have her husband around when she gambles, but if she wins she tells him about it and spends the money for something for the family. She's strictly a gambling novice and prefers to play roulette because she can talk while the wheel spins.

The survey that turned up these facts took six months to complete and includes documented answers from 1000 women. Jack Entratter, owner of the Sands Hotel, said an even more complicated count showed that 5,475,000 of the 9,000,000 visitors to Las Vegas in 1955 were women.

The facts they turned up are fascinating proof of women's inconsistency. There was a 60-year-old spinster from Duluth, Minn., who said she gambled for excitement. And there was a young divorcee who kept putting silver dollars on the number 27 because she had received her divorce on the 27th of the month and sentimentally hoped she'd get her husband back if she was lucky.

Of the 1000 women surveyed, 740 were married and only 212 liked to gamble with their husbands. If they won, 511 said they would reveal their winnings to their husbands, and when asked "Why?" the majority of those women gave one of three answers: "To show him women can do things as well as men." "To rub it in because he lost the last time." "To put an end to his claims that women are only good at spending money."

Edward Stamm Rites Monday in Santa Barbara

Funeral services for Edward H. Stamm, 68, former Santa Barbara civic leader for many years, will be held in that city Monday at 11 a.m., at the Trinity Episcopal Church.

Stamm, who had become a resident here and who had opened a real estate office in association with Earl Obern in The Center, died Wednesday evening at Desert Hospital.

While in Santa Barbara, Stamm had been trust officer and vice president of Security First National Bank. He was past president of Santa Barbara board of education, Kiwanis Club, and Chamber of Commerce.

He was a member of the local Kiwanis Club, and of the Palm Springs Real Estate Board.

Survivors include his widow, Cosette Kay; one daughter, Mrs. Barbara McPherson of Woodside; a stepson, David B. Kellogg, U. S. Air Force; two brothers, Fred Stamm of Hollywood, and Charles Stamm of Cincinnati, Ohio, and a sister, Mrs. Charles Miller, Van Nuys.

Wielers and Son Mortuary was in charge of local arrangements, and Welch and Rice of Santa Barbara are in charge there.

Nixon Now Believed Solidly on Ticket if Ike Runs Again

By LYLE C. WILSON
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon will be on the ticket with President Eisenhower if there is to be a second term.

That's the program as of now, subject to some qualifying ifs and buts, Mr. Eisenhower, however, apparently wants his young friend as a running mate again, if there is any running.

There is considerable evidence that Nixon has been given that comforting word by the President himself. All of this tends to encourage Nixon who has some problems of his own in this presidential campaign year. Problem No. 1 is how to conduct himself so that he may be in the best position to be nominated for President next August if Mr. Eisenhower bows out.

NIXON IS not his own man. Far from it. As Vice President of the United States he has no real mandate to say or do anything of real significance except at the express request of the President. Nixon must not make any political moves for himself, none, until and unless Mr. Eisenhower announces he will not be a second term candidate.

Sen. William F. Knowland, another Californian, has said he would be willing to wait until Feb. 15 or thereabouts to hear from Mr. Eisenhower before launching his own presidential candidacy. If the President remains silent much beyond that date, you can expect Knowland to move.

NIXON IS silenced until the President chooses to speak, however late that may be. His No. 2 problem is how to overcome the whispers that "Nixon can't win" or that "Nixon would hurt the ticket if he were renominated." A lot of people want Nixon's hide with him not in it. He is disliked, even hated, by the Democratic leadership and by the party generally.

Left-of-center Republicans and independents thump him like a drum. The Vice President has given much thought to his spot as administration whipping boy. Look for him to increase his schedule of public speaking in the weeks ahead. Personal appearances have paid off well for Nixon.

TERRIFIED CITIZENS RUSH TO ARM FOR ESCAPED VENGEANCE KILLER

PRINCETON, Ind. (AP)—State police armed with sawed-off shotguns and tommyguns today guarded officials and witnesses who helped convict Leslie Irvin, the "Chinese execution" killer who slipped out of an "escape proof" jail Thursday.

Irvin had killed six persons before he was trapped, tried and condemned to death. Police said he probably is armed and won't hesitate to kill again since his own life is worthless.

Authorities in Indiana and Kentucky—scenes of his crimes—also were warned to be on their guard against Irvin, who became known as the "Chinese execution" killer because he made his victims kneel before sending a bullet through the back of their heads.

THE ESCAPE OF Irvin terrified citizens of Evansville, home of two schoolboy members of the Junior Sheriff's Patrol who had linked Irvin's car to the murder of three Kentuckians and led to his capture.

Frightened Evansville citizens bought practically every available gun in town. Store owners had to set up waiting lists and there were angry complaints at a state law requiring fingerprints and a one-day waiting period for gun purchases.

Honolulu Plane Loses Race with Stork

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A young mother gave birth to a daughter high over the Pacific today as a Honolulu-bound Pan American plane reversed its course and tried to beat the stork to a California hospital.

Mrs. Robert Henderson, 25, Nashville, N. C., and her two months premature daughter, were taken to Peninsula Hospital at nearby Burlingame. Both were reported doing fine.

THE FATHER, Marine Sgt. Robert Henderson, was taking his wife and another daughter, 13-month-old Elizabeth Ann, to Hawaii where he was to be assigned to the Fourth Marine Division.

The baby was born at 3:04 a.m. PST, shortly after the plane's captain, Henry C. Kristofferson, decided to turn the aircraft back to San Francisco. Kristofferson had been told earlier by the purser, Sue Morehouse Sargent, that "a woman passenger is about to have a baby."

"OH, NO!" the captain replied. The plane crew quickly prepared a sleeping berth for Mrs. Henderson. Another woman passenger, Mrs. Francis Norton of Honolulu, took charge of the delivery. At the hospital, the parents said they were thinking of naming the baby Pamela, after Pan American.

Herman Reich Describes Campaign as Family Affair

The candidacy of Herman Reich for Congress is a "family affair," he said at a meeting in the American Legion Hall Wednesday night at which he presented his wife, Ruth, and son, Kenny. A daughter, Carolyn, was unable to appear because of sickness.

The group of friends which he had invited almost filled the hall and included several from other cities in the 29th District. Charles Farrell served as master of ceremonies and told how he and Capt. Reich had served in the Navy. He said he thought the training Reich had received in the Navy as an active and reserve officer was good background for a prospective Congressman.

Esther Petterson Dies in Pasadena

Miss Esther Petterson, a resident of Cathedral City for 12 years, died Wednesday at Huntington Memorial Hospital in Pasadena.

Miss Petterson had been a librarian, and lived for many years in Chicago. She also resided for several years in China with her brother, Carl, who was a harbor commissioner under the Chinese government.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m., Saturday, at Temple Mortuary in Monrovia.

In a brief talk Reich said he thought he was well fitted for the job and was anxious to make it a career. He said he has already done a lot of work throughout Imperial and Riverside counties. He asked for volunteers to assist in his campaign and said he would devote his full time to it now that he has sold the Village Market.

On the platform with the candidate in addition to his family were Francis Crocker, Roger Williams, Carl Lykken, Lawrence Crossley and Earl Hough.

Thomas Van Hemert, 32, Dies in Bishop

Thomas S. Van Hemert, 32, of San Gabriel, son of Mrs. Della Van Hemert of 1535 Mel Avenue, died yesterday in Bishop dug to a heart attack.

Survivors besides his mother include his widow, Kannie; three children, Stanford, Jane and William; a brother, Robert, Fairbanks, Alaska. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

EDITORIALS

(Editor's Note: This editorial by Julian W. Ramsey, won First Award in the contest sponsored by The Laymen's National Committee in connection with National BIBLE WEEK, 1955. It appeared in the October 17, 1955 issue of The Argus, published at Rock Island, Illinois.)

The Bible is the most widely circulated book in the world. National Bible Week, whose observance begins today and continues through next Sunday, is a good time to point out that it is also the best literature. But it is not as widely read as great literature should be.

Don't reach for the Bible with the feeling that you are assuming a heavy chore for the sake of righteousness. It is not only the key to salvation; it invites you to interesting stories and to incomparable poetry.

Not even Shakespeare's dramas, Dante's "Divine Comedy" or Homer's "Iliad" excel it as literature. Dr. James Allen Dinsmore found in applying the tests of good literature to the Bible.

William Lyons Phelps, late professor of English at Yale, said "a knowledge of the Bible without a college course is more valuable than a college course without a Bible."

Wisdom there is in it, especially in such books as Proverbs and Job. But where is there to be found a more beautiful story than Ruth, or a more delicate lesson in tolerance? And where is there a more beautiful discourse on wisdom than in Job?

Christ told many parables to illustrate His teachings and each is a story. You will find about 20 of them in the Gospel of Luke.

Jesus also spoke in beautiful poetry. His metaphors are the envy of the imagist poets of modern generations. You will find more than 50 in the Sermon on the Mount, which Matthew, the tax collector turned scribe, faithfully preserved for us. "Ye are the salt of the earth..." "Ye are the light of the world..." "No man can serve two masters..." "And why beholdeth thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considereth not the beam that is in thine own eye?"

If the Bible seems too formidable for you to read in its entirety, you can turn to the Psalms. This book has been described as a Bible in miniature.

Even the cynic can derive pleasure from the Bible — and we trust, some profit — if he will read Ecclesiastes and such passages as — "vanity of vanities, all is vanity..." "For what hath the wise man more than the fool? But tugging at his conscience will be the frequent reminder that right shall triumph..." "Whoso keepeth the commandment shall feel no evil."

Some people, even scholars, have regarded the Bible as hard to understand, and it is true that some passages of it have been subjected to conflicting definitions and that a few parts are generally regarded as allegorical. But the main lessons are clear. For Christians the central message is summed up in one paragraph:

"For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him shall not perish but have eternal life."

But make sure that you believe.

It will not be hard if you will allow yourself to fall under the spell of the Scriptures often enough. Such remarkable writings, you will know, could not have come from the hands and minds of ordinary men.

HINDSIGHT DOES IT — The New Year predictions of Achille d'Angelo, who styles himself the "Sorcerer of Naples," include "a grave crisis in the Kremlin" and a "change in the White House" in 1956.

With such predictions the Italian soothsayer should be able to maintain his previous batting average of about .500. It's not difficult to be right half of the time if you are vague enough in your forecasts.

If a soothsayer does his part, the believers in prophetic vision will do the rest. The basic human desire to render the future less mysterious and unknowable will fit the event to the saying.

(The Washington, D.C., Evening Star)

HORN-TOOTING RACKET — There will be widespread public approval of Traffic Director Keneipp's proposal for curbing horn-tooting in this traffic-nutty city. While he is not prepared to go as far as some cities abroad have done (Paris and Rome have banned horn blowing completely), he will urge the Traffic Advisory Council to sponsor a strict regulation against indiscriminate and unnecessary blasting of the horn button.

Such a regulation, of course, would be unfair to taxi drivers bent on blasting their way through stalled traffic, to swains signalling their arrival in residential areas and to husbands who impatiently await completion of their wives' shopping tours in stores. But it would be a welcome boon to jittery and noise-harassed citizens who crave reasonable quiet, even in the city. Automobile horns should be used only in emergencies involving public safety. Any other use should subject the offender to the penalty of confinement for at least 30 days in a horn-testing laboratory.

PRESTON, IDAHO, CITIZEN — Unless businessmen who can't be bothered with politics start smartening up and speaking up and fighting for our economic system, the rising curve will meet the reward curve coming down — and there goes free enterprise! We shall then have the "welfare state," for which we shall all be working.

KISS OF DEATH

THIS SIDE OF THE SUN

By Phat

Don't call him a cop.
It isn't cricket.
Or another name
When you get a ticket.

J. Edgar Hoover of the FBI started it a week or so ago when he said publicly that a police officer should not be called "cop". He deemed their services to the public deserving more respect and dignity than that. Since then, other official bodies have added their weight to the admonition. The hoodlums say "cop" and you don't want to be classed as a hood, do you?

OF COURSE, the temptation is sometimes great to apply your own designation after receiving for a citation. But it is best to wait until the police officer is out of hearing before inventing new derogatory terms.

Seriously, however, in Palm Springs we have good reason to treat our police officers with dignity and respect. In my long years on the desk of The Desert Sun I have received numerous letters from visitors to the Village who, because of some infraction of the traffic laws, have been in line for a ticket. When they got home they sat themselves down and took ball point in hand in letters to the editor.

And against a very few who indulged in carping criticism were scores of letters laudatory of our policemen.

The foregoing does NOT mean that I am trying to square a ticket.

SPEAKING OF LETTERS, two of note came this week. One was from an old friend over Cathedral City way who likes to comb the flaws out of these pieces and let me know wherein I erred. Like, for instance: "You said last night that if it had not been for Franklin, Gutenberg or Mergenthaler you might have been selling insurance, used cars or groceries for the past 53 years, etc., etc. What kind of used cars could have you sold in 1903? They were too new to be 'used' then." And a lot of them were too new to be used then, in another sense of the word, mister.

The other letter had to do with my comments Wednesday on Mr. Fred Weigel's plight when his gem of verse sourced on him by the substitution of the word "monster" for "master."

"Tell Mr. Weigel that he wrote truer than he knew. From what I have seen of most of you, the way it came out was better than the original."

A sentiment I do not believe is uttered in a charitable spirit.

THE BULB SNATCHER is going to have an easier time of it if a new invention being put on the market, takes hold. This is a new light globe which, for the first time since Thomas Edison invented the bulb more than 60 years ago, does not have to be screwed into the socket. According to the inventor, it has a strong magnet which holds it in place. It requires no turning or twisting and stays put. Until the bulb snatcher comes along and tilt; it slightly and uses it for his own light. Wish I had thought of that.

AND NOW, a final traffic note: Did you notice that court item last week which set forth that a flashing signal isn't enough. You've got to stick your hand out of the window, too, to be on the safe side in case of suit or citation. That hand signal law is still on the books.

YOUR CITY GOVERNMENT

Park Department
Every city counts its parks among its greatest assets, and Palm Springs is no exception. The areas set aside for grass and flowers are particularly welcome in the desert and citizens and visitors alike make use of these pleasant oases.

De Muth Park, a triangular section bounded by Palm Canyon, Indian Avenue and Ramon Road, is land leased by the City from one of the Indian landowners, and was developed with money willed to the city for park purposes by Adolf DeMuth. It is a spot designed entirely for esthetic purposes, to provide a bit of space and beauty in a rapidly-developing commercial area, and to set off the impressive view up Tahquitz Canyon from the main street intersection. There are no playground or picnicking facilities at DeMuth Park.

TAMARISK PARK in the northerly section of Palm Springs was developed from land acquired from the Government after the war. This is a real family recreational park, with playground for children, three lighted tennis courts, shuffleboard and horseshoe areas, barbecues and picnic tables, as well as rest rooms, benches and walkways.

In addition to these two public parks and the Polo Grounds recreational area, the city owns numerous small parkway areas in residential districts, all of which are kept in order by the Park Department. Street trees, too, come under this city vision—there are 412 palm trees on Palm Canyon Drive alone.

The city's first full-time park employee was James Mason, who was transferred to this position in 1945. He is now Park Superintendent with six gardeners on his staff.

Once upon a time visitors asked which side you milked a cow on, and an Arizona answered, "the outside."

This is a sophisticated West — creamy skinned gals who don't need cream, foreign cars, streamlined churches, vodka as well as bourbon-drinkers, horse and dog races even on Sunday, handsome jet pilots — oh, yes, and climate.

"Climate is what Arizona advertises and weather is what it has," says Phoenix author Oren Arnold.

On one of those 115-degree summer days a dog burned a hole in a screen door sticking his cold nose against it. It seldom rains here: houses only need roofs for TV aerials.

We wore sombreros when we got off a TWA quickie vacation plane — but I ditched mine when I saw a sign saying "124th Street."

The Salt River Valley population's tearing toward a half-million. George Gobel's just one of the sagacious Easterners who invest in the West.

Gazing off at beautiful Camelback Mountain, I was startled, as many Indians must have been, by a neon sign proclaiming: "George Jessel in Person."

Christine Jorgensen's been here

just ahead and the Koko boss, Sol Troop, an ex-New Yorker, said: "Phoenix is ready for Broadway-Hollywood entertainment."

George told in one story of somebody "employing language Milton Berle wouldn't use in front of Sophie Tucker." It got a big laugh, proving everybody knows celebrities' habits. George did real well — they took out the men's room to make space for customers.

Out at nearby Scottsdale we saw a man shoot down two other men right on a corner. A wagon pulled the two bodies away, their feet sticking out. The carriages were blank — it was a picture-taking to promote the next rodeo.

Many young men going West will come to this land of Horace Stoneham and his New York Giants, and Frank Lloyd Wright and his architecture students. I couldn't find one soul who'd admit he'd like to go back where he came from. The only pessimistic note was from a woman who solemnly said, "You know the Indians can now buy whiskey, and the Indians aren't ready for whiskey yet." Gosh darn, I wonder who is.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL

Rita Hayworth, escorted by Raymond Hakim, arrived in town quietly enroute to France. While here she's checking on long-overdue payments for the support of one of her daughters... Att'y Jerry Giesler's due here to push $9,000,000 worth of lawsuits for Sammy Davis Jr. and two other clients against scandal mags.

Virginia Warren is coming back to New York to live, and to get a job—type of work undecided... Lillian Roth entertains at parties with an imitation of Susan Hayward's imitation of her... Piper

Laurie and Gene Nelson, attending the Statler - Hilton opening in Dallas, are acting like soon-to-be newlyweds... Lynne (64G Quiz) Dollar has a roommate named Nerissa Nickel and a dog named Penny.

A famed young actor is resting in a midwest sanitarium after a breakdown... Lee Tracy showed up as a swami at the Gourmet Society's dinner at Sherry's 1890 — Tyrone Power flew in from L. A. for the Russian New Year party at Gogi's Charterhouse... Stripper Lili St. Cyr will groom her husband, Ted Jordan, for a TV career.

Audie Murphy bought a 65-foot yacht... At the Harwyn Club: Gary Crosby and model-singer Libby Dean... Sloan Simpson bought a home in New Hope, Pa. Rita Gam's new romance is a publishing exec.

EARL'S PEARLS... There's so much good in the worst of us, and so much bad in the best of us, that it's hard to tell which of us ought to reform the rest of us.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: "The honeymoon is over, kid, when your wife starts to complain about the noise you make getting breakfast." Ima Washout.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Mrs. Red Skelton opened a Chinese fortune cookie, and as she read the slip, Red said, "Oh dear, I hope it's not bad news."

Joe DiMaggio, visiting the crowded Copacabana, had to take a table far in the rear. Comedian Joey Bishop called out, "Hey Joe, it's good to see you in the outfield again"... That's earl, brother.

Washington Report

WASHINGTON — Considerable quantities of American surplus military equipment are being blackmarketed to the Arabs and the Iron Curtain countries.

That has been definitely established by the House Government Operations Committee, headed by Representative William Dawson, (D., Ill.) in an extensive investigation of the disposal of such military supplies in the U. S. and abroad.

On the basis of still-unpublished testimony and other documentary evidence in the Committee's hands, there is direct connection between the secret sale of American equipment to the Arabs and Communists and similar transactions recently exposed in Britain. The same "exporters" handled many of these deals.

One of these traders, an Englishman, told investigators that recent shipments to Egypt totaled more than $1,500,000 — of which a large portion was American equipment.

He listed the Third U. S. Air Force, in Britain, as one of his big "suppliers."

The unit has authority to dispose of surplus and other unwanted equipment to private dealers. A survey disclosed this particular one had for sale at that time the following: 465 jeeps, 390 trucks of various sizes, 2,000,000 cans of meat, and hundreds of thousands of trousers, overcoats, combat boots, and other items of clothing.

The Committee also has a report from Assistant Defense Secretary Thomas Pike that surplus sales last year amounted to $143,526,844.

Original cost of this military equipment was $1,406,907,540.

Defense Secretary Wilson is so concerned about the blackmarketing of these supplies to the Arabs and Communists that he has taken two forceful measures to stop it:

(1) Sent an unannounced "task force" to Europe to study surplus disposal operations there in order to formulate corrective steps; and (2) tightened provisions of the order he issued last year relaxing the regulations on the sale of surplus property by the armed forces.

The congressional probes charge it was these modifications which opened the way for "leakage" of this equipment to the Reds and Arabs.

SECRET TRANSCRIPT — Representative Dawson's investigators have been unable to get detailed figures about surplus sales from the Defense Department.

The latter contends this data is still incomplete.

But the probes have obtained the minutes of a secret Pentagon meeting on the problem. It was a session of the joint Department of Defense and General Services Administration Industry Advisory Committee on Disposal of Surplus Property.

Chairman of the group is Ralph C. Spencer, and among those participating were Admiral T. L. Becknell, Jr., of the Navy Bureau of Supplies, and Army and Air Force officers.

Significant highlights of these minutes are:

"There was discussion of the whole question of surreptitious trading with the Arabs and Iron Curtain countries. As occurred once before in these discussions, it was pointed out that the normal import-export controls of the various countries are relied upon for in this matter.

Our protection. The State Department maintains surveillance and deals with the foreign governments

"It was stated that after items are sold, the only thing the government can do is to try to check where the items are being shipped. This checking could go on in this country by the FBI, and the State Department and related agencies in foreign countries if there is suspicion or evidence to show that the property would be sent behind the Iron Curtain or to the Arabs."

TAX FACTS

Save on Your Income Tax

(This is one of a series of articles on federal income tax filing. The articles are based on information provided by the American Institute of Accountants and the California Society of Certified Public Accountants.)

"Deduction" is the taxpayer's favorite word. Every dollar you can deduct in figuring your tax puts twenty cents to ninety cents in your pocket, depending upon the tax bracket you're in.

Medical deductions were discussed in a previous article. Here are some of the other deductions you may be able to take if you itemize them instead of using the short 1940A form or the standard 10 per cent deduction.

You can deduct your contributions to religious, charitable, scientific, literary and educational organizations, and to non-profit cemeteries.

Include contributions of goods at their fair value, as well as cash, but not your personal services (blood donations are regarded as a personal service and not deductible.)

If you contribute stocks, real estate or other property, you can deduct their value at the time of the gift, even if it is considerably more than the original cost to you.

You are ordinarily not permitted to deduct a contribution which you have only pledged and not paid during the tax year.

You can deduct up to 20 per cent of your income for any eligible charitable contributions, and up to 30 per cent if at least 10 per cent was in gifts to religious organizations, schools or hospitals.

INTEREST YOU pay on personal loans and other indebtedness is deductible.

If there is a mortgage on your home, be sure to find out what part of your payments is interest and deduct it on your tax return. The same applies to automobile financing and installment purchases.

If some of your credit buying involves "carrying charges" instead of specified interest, you are allowed to deduct such charges up to 6 per cent of the average monthly unpaid balance if they are listed separately in your contract or bills.

Most taxes you paid for yourself or a member of your household, except federal taxes, are deductible. However, taxes are not deductible when included in the price and not separately charged to the customer.

If you paid someone to care for your child because that was necessary while you were at work, you may be entitled to a "child care" deduction of as much as $600. This deduction also applies to the care of any dependent who was mentally or physically incapacitated. Check the instructions to see whether you qualify.

DON'T OVERLOOK deductions for losses due to storms, fires, floods, theft, and accidents not due to your own negligence.

The way to figure such losses is explained in the instructions. Any insurance or other compensation you may have received for the damage must be subtracted from the amount of loss.

Miscellaneous deductions to which you may be entitled include union dues, purchase of necessary tools of your trade, fees to employment agencies, expenses you incurred for the benefit of your employer, and some alimony payments.

The instructions that come with your tax forms give further information. Help is also available from the Internal Revenue Service, which urges you to consult a properly qualified advisor if you need outside assistance.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

GEORGE JESSEL, celebrated after-dinner speaker, had always promised Detroit friends that one day he'd talk to the inmates of the Old Ladies' Hebrew Home there. One day he made good his promise.

He soon had cause to regret his good intentions. The ladies were too old to "dig" his sophisticated patter. Many placidly continued their knitting or rocking; a few even played imaginary cards.

One old lady, however, listened beaming, and nodded her head happily every time he made a point. George found himself orating for her benefit alone. When he had finished, the superintendent brought this old lady up to shake his hand.

"Mrs. Mandelbaum thinks you're a fine gentleman," said the superintendent, "and wants you to know this is the first time in ten years she regrets she cannot understand a word of English."

Springs Chamber of Commerce. Entries must be sent to The Desert Sun Photo Editor, P.O. Box 190, not later than January 26. Judges in the contest will be top photographic dealers and manufacturers of the United States who will be in convention at El Mirador Hotel starting January 30.

Camels in Indio Live Life of Ease and Color-in Luxury

INDIO — Since the ill-fated Sands and Howes camel train venture of 1950, numerous attempts have been made to establish the camel as part of the Southwest desert picture.

All of them failed because the animals and terrain didn't take to each other. Too many dromedaries missed the smooth sands and thorny forage of the Sahara.

However, the most recent desert camel project appears to be headed for success. Instead of rigorous scrambling over rocky routes the animals of this attempt live a luxurious routine.

AT THE INDIO fairgrounds two camels imported from Australia in 1953 are enjoying a life of ease and color as part of the Riverside County Fair and National Date Festival.

Year-around the two creatures, named Jemee and Noor, pad about on soft grass and sand, eating dates and alfalfa. They carry no load heavier than the beauties of Queen Scheherazade's court which reigns over the Fair this year, February 16 through 22.

The two dromedaries, or one-hump variety native to North Africa, were among 32 wild camels rounded up by animal importers from the vast Australian wastelands for American zoos, circuses, and the Riverside County Fair and National Date Festival.

CAMELS WERE introduced into Australia many decades ago for sheep ranchers. They were used for transportation and ranch duty before the days of roads.

With the arrival of trucks and roads, the camels were turned loose, and in recent years have been regarded by ranchers as pests, competing with livestock for the sparse vegetation.

Removal of the wild camels is encouraged, and since they are free of diseases that plague their relatives in North Africa, the U. S. Government permits their entry.

Jemee, or Jimmy, as he is usually called, was a young camel of about eight months when picked up in the round-up. His mother had been shot by a rancher.

Noor, or Nora, is older and a girl camel. Sometimes they are called "Heba" and "Sheba", but Jack Klein, fairgrounds overseer reports that the camels answer to Jimmy and Nora.

IT WAS SPRING in the land down-under when the camels were placed aboardship, and autumn when they arrived in Coachella Valley. Consequently, for two years both Jimmy and Nora were completely confused about when to shed their coats.

It was rumored that the two Indio camels were the last of the animals imported for transportation service on the Southwest deserts, but it is believed that the last camel of the U. S. Army venture begun by Secretary of War Jefferson Davis died about 20 years ago in a Los Angeles zoo.

The initial attempt launched by Sands and Howes, veteran circus men, was a plan to maintain regular monthly camel trains between Independence, Missouri, and the California gold fields.

THE MINERS, however, refused to be associated with the strange creatures, and went their way with the familiar oxen, mules, and horses.

Later, Secretary Davis strung camel lines between the lonely military posts, but because of serious injury to the camel's soft foot, the enterprise withered.

At Indio, amid date groves and the Arabian Nights setting of the Fair, Jimmy and Nora live in a dream world for camels. Plenty to eat, no work, a regular round of exhibitions, beautiful girls, and thousands of fairgoers as company every February.

Two Way Radio Approved for Fish, Game Cars

COACHELLA VALLEY—Use of $2500 originally budgeted for game pens at Twin Pines, county juvenile camp, to purchase and install three two-way radios in State Fish and Game patrol cars was approved by the supervisors Monday on recommendation by County Administrative Officer Clay Begole.

A request by the Riverside County Fish and Game Commission for approval of the transfer was referred to the administrative officer for study a few weeks ago.

The county commission's request that the radio equipment be maintained by the county communications department was not granted. "It is my opinion," said Begole, "that although owned by the county, the equipment is being purchased with Fish and Game funds and used principally for propagation and conservation of fish, game and wildlife in the county and therefore should be maintained by the same funds."

The three game warden cars to be equipped with the two-way radios will be stationed in the Blythe, Coachella and Corona districts. The game warden car at Idyllwild is already equipped with a two-way radio on county frequency and Begole said it is working very satisfactorily. He said many more violators should be apprehended with use of the additional equipment.

500 Attend SMC Fashion Show Luncheon Jan. 19

PALM DESERT — A fabulous fashion show luncheon held at the Shadow Mountain Club yesterday was attended by more than 500 persons, who filled the dining room. The event was sponsored by the Palm Desert Woman's Club.

As the guests entered the door they were met by a dressmaker's form, which was the receptacle for tickets which were used for door prize drawings. The tables were decorated with flowers and small gowned figurines, and the figurines each wore a replica of a dress that was worn by the models.

Mrs. R. T. Pierson and Mrs. Hal Kapp were co-chairmen of the event, and Mrs. Isabel Delyea, owner of the Clothes Horse, showed the fashions.

MODELS WERE Mrs. Ned Blaze, Mrs. Alan Ahrens, Mrs. Jerry Malone, Mrs. Evelyn Sahlamb, Mrs. Henry Cheeseman, Mrs. James Harstadt, Miss Karen Allabough, and Mrs. Clarence Bosworth, worth.

Mrs. Elora Kenyon, who recently opened a new shop in Palm Desert, did the hair styles.

Other committees were: In charge of tickets and reservations, Mrs. Edward C. Ruge, chairman; Mrs. L. E. Robbins, Mrs. Robert Davenport, Mrs. Kay Olesen, and Mrs. Willard Cockerell; decorations were handled by Mrs. Robert Brooks, chairman, Mrs. Otto Emmons, Mrs. Lauren D. Burt, and Mrs. Louis Keightly.

AS DOOR PRIZES, five dresses were presented to the winners; Mrs. L. C. Cortner handled the registration.

Winners were: Mrs. Michel Bucino, Mrs. Jerry Malone, Mrs. Forrest Bower, Mrs. Phil Tiernan and Mrs. Francis George.

New Direct Road Urged by Bureau

Construction of a direct road between Palo Verde and Imperial valleys is badly needed, the Riverside County Farm Bureau advised the board of supervisors.

Their request that the supervisors appear before the California Legislative Joint Interim Committee on Transportation Problems to urge construction of such a road, was referred to the county road department.

The interim committee is to meet at the Mission Inn in Riverside, February 1 and 2 to consult with responsible county officials on the use of state highway funds in this area.

"Farmers in both the Imperial and Palo Verde valleys find themselves frequently interdependent," declared the Farm Bureau, "especially in the exchange of seeds and other commodities having to do with agricultural production."

"Construction of a direct road between the two valleys would obviate necessity of commerce making the long trip around by Indio. The mutual exchange of goods and services would be beneficial to both counties and would be a constructive addition to the state highway system."

Playhouse to Present New Comedy

"Made in Heaven," comedy with a cast headed by New York and Hollywood players, will open at Herb Rogers' Palm Springs Playhouse Tuesday evening, January 24, following the current attraction, "Oh, Men! Oh, Women!," starring Jess Barker. "Made in Heaven," written by Hargr Wilde, will be the second of a series of 14 Rogers productions during his 1956 season.

Marrian Walters will play the role she originated on Broadway in 1946 with Donald Cook and Carmen Matthews in the show produced by John Golden. Other important parts will be handled by Joyce Holden, William Hughes, Sidney Breeze and Molly Dodd. Michael Ferrall, who has joined Rogers for his eighth consecutive season at the Palm Springs Playhouse, is staging the production, which will be presented nightly at 8:30 for one week, ending Sunday evening, January 29.

"Made in Heaven" is a comedy based upon the legend that "marriages are made in Heaven." Rogers is making a series of visits to Hollywood to line up important film and stage personalities for his Palm Springs Playhouse season. He also will try out several original plays prior to their premieres in New York.

Toastmistress Has Meeting

Toastmistress Club of Palm Springs met in the St. Paul's parish hall Wednesday evening with Mrs. John Dill as Toastmistress and Mrs. John Johnson as Topic Mistress.

"Belonging to a Club" was the title of the interesting talk given by Mrs. William Blomquist, while Mrs. Warner Moon's was an informative one on "Building a Speech."

Any woman interested in self improvement in the art of public speaking is invited to call Mrs. Margo Morrison, membership chairman, at 2785, or Mrs. Clarence Brechlin, president, at 9573.

To keep macaroni or spaghetti from boiling over, add a teaspoon of butter to the cooking water.

PUTTING UP POSTERS publicizing the Woman's Club style show on January 27, was the Wednesday chore of Mrs. Boyd Andrews, right, Club president, and Mrs. George Smith, house chairman. There will be a morning and an afternoon showing of resort clothes. "Viva Palm Springs" is the theme for the show, which is under the general chairmanship of Mrs. Monte Herbert. (Desert Sun Photo)

Oleg Cassini Holds Out for Clothes with Curves

By ELIZABETH TOOMEY
United Press Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK — Designer Oleg Cassini held out today for clothes that show off women's curves. He did so in the face of other new spring fashions which are more covered than curvaceous.

Nicklines are cut way down both fore and aft in Cassini's spring dresses. And there's no sign of the semi-fitted dresses and suits that are the biggest spring fashion news in most American collections being shown here at the 26th National Fashion Press Week.

"I don't think American women are half as conservative as most people say they are," Cassini said. "I've cut necklines as low as possible before and found that women liked the idea." He added—unnecessarily—"and so do men."

FORM FITTING

Cassini agrees with other designers about high-waisted lines, but his empire-cut dresses are made to hug the figure all the way down. One of his lowest-cut dresses is a printed silk organza in unusual colors of red, brown and gray. Another is a flower-printed paper taffeta dress, cut so low that only the most careful fitting will keep the wearer covered.

Daytime wool dresses are snug in the middle and straight-skirted, but Cassini has added bolero jackets with occasional puffy sleeves to give a new top-heavy look.

There is less talk about the length of skirts in next spring's clothes than there is about the length of sleeves. Suit and coat sleeves stop almost any place except at the wrist.

SLEEVES TOO

Monte Sano and Pruzan have used short cape sleeves on coats and no sleeves at all on some spring suits. The sleeveless suit is done in three pieces of navy blue silk and wool. The top coat has bracelet sleeves and no collar. The underneath jacket has a large collar, which fits over the topcoat, and no sleeves.

Designers have left women plenty of choice as to what shape they prefer in their new Easter coats. Full coats are in the minority, but they're still present. Straight coats that button nearly to the hem are favorites of several designers. And a strictly high-fashion wrap for the future is the coat with the high-waisted curve. The armholes are cut high, the sleeves hang slim and straight to a point several inches above the wrist and the princess curve begins just below the armholes.

Monte Sano calls his high-waisted coat the shah coat and Ben Zuckerman calls his the Nehru coat—to show which part of the world inspired the new line.

Vows Exchanged

Marriage vows were exchanged in the beautiful Garden Room of El Encanto in Palm Springs by Sherman W. McLeish and Helen G. Ryder on Saturday, January 14, at 5 p.m. Rev. Le Roy Hass of the Lutheran Church performed the wedding ceremony, his first in America. Rev. Hass recently came from Japan where he served as a missionary and will return to the Islands shortly.

The bride's father is the Rev. Charles Bailey, retired curate of St. Paul's in San Diego. Mr. McLeish is from Avalon, Catalina Island where he is engaged in the contracting business and the new-laws will live there.

The bride wore an imported English mohair tailored suit in charcoal with black patent accessories with pink accents.

Best man was Darrel McLeish, son of Sherman W. McLeish, and the matron of honor was Lucy McLeish of Avalon, wife of Darrel.

Witnesses at the informal ceremony were Larry Toadvine, nephew of the groom; Stanley Rosin, and Mrs. B. Marx of Palm Springs.

Use Hot Water

for Coffee Stains

NEW YORK — Fresh coffee stains can be removed from washable fabrics, if treated with hot water promptly. Stretch the fabric across a bowl, fasten with a rubber band, and pour boiling water on the stain from a height of two or three feet. (Pouring from this height applies a little extra pressure.) Or hold the fabric in a cupped position under the hot water tap in the bathtub, two or three feet from the tap. Wash afterwards in plentiful soap or detergent suds. If a trace of coffee stain still remains on a colorfast fabric, bleach in the sun. Or use a light bleach of hydrogen peroxide or sodium perborate. Then wash and rinse thoroughly again.

Hot Potatoes

NEW YORK — French fries cooking tip: cook them in hot fat until they're soft but not browned. Drain until just three minutes before serving. Then, with the fat hot, brown them quickly.

Cure for Candlewax

Stains on Linens

LINCOLN, Neb. — Home economists at the University of Nebraska offer these tips on removing candlewax from table covers.

First remove the hardened wax with a dull knife. Then sponge the wax with a cleaning fluid, but be certain you have no flame and plenty of fresh air.

If any traces of color are left, these usually can be removed by sponging a cloth dipped with a mixture of two parts water to one part rubbing alcohol, the experts said.

THE MALOUPS, Vicki and Billy, have been chosen to be the Sweethearts of the Sweetheart Ball to be held at El Mirador on February 17, it was divulged today. Long-time Villagers and popular in social sets of both Palm Springs and Los Angeles, they will be specially honored at the Ball. (Anderson Photo).

Popular Couple Named as Sweethearts of the Ball

Vicki and Billy Malouf have been chosen to be the Sweethearts of the Sweetheart Ball to be held at El Mirador on the evening of February 17, it was revealed today by Bettye and Monte Herbert who will co-chairman the Ball.

The choice is a particularly happy one as the Maloufs have been Village homeowners for 25 years and during that time have been active both socially and civically in Village affairs. Mrs. Malouf is a director of the Palm Springs Playhouse Guild and has headed many benefit luncheons, dinners and balls, including the Edith Small fashion luncheon this year and the Sponsors Ball last year. Mr. Malouf is one of the incorporators of the Palm Springs Development Company.

The Malouf home on Via Las Palmas has been the scene of innumerable parties and these two are renowned as gracious hosts. They have a wide circle of friends both in Palm Springs and Los Angeles, and are certain to be the center of much friendly attention when they reign over the Sweetheart Ball. Last Year's Sweethearts were that beloved couple Mr. and Mrs. J. E. French.

Valentine and Martha and George Washington motifs will be combined in decorating the El Mirador Room for the event, with special effects planned by Kay and Earl Cordrey. There will be dancing to the eight-piece Joe Moshay orchestra. Entertainment is being arranged by June and J. Ross Clarke, B.J. and Belmont Sanchez are on the welcoming committee.

Vie and O.E.L. Graves have donated one of his paintings to be auctioned at the Ball. The abstracts by this fine artist are commanding more and more attention. Preceding the dinner, cocktails will be served in the Kiva Room. On the cocktail committee are Nellis and Al Hunt, Dorothy and Chester Adler.

Seating and assignment of tables will be in the order of reservations, the Herberts said today. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Graves at 5330, Mrs.

A.R. Simon at 5256, or El Mirador at 2044. Checks (the dinner is $50 a couple) should be mailed to the Heart Fund, Box JJ, Cathedral City.

Proceeds from the Sweetheart Ball, which honors all sweethearts in the desert area, go to the Five Mile County Heart Fund and are part of the Heart Fund Drive of which Monte Herbert is local chairman.

At SM Club

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Friendly of the Village were dinner guests of the Allen H. Worcesters of Palm Desert at "Coronation Night" at Shadow Mountain Club, following a cocktail hour at the Worcesters' Sun Lodge. "Coronation Night" is a regular Monday night feature at the popular Club.

Postpone Date of Meeting

Announcement was made today that the Webfooters Club, a group of Northwesterners wintering on the desert, have postponed their meeting, originally scheduled for January 24, until a later date.

THE TOY LOAN LIBRARY has reopened after the holiday vacation with many new toys. Shown here is Mrs. Helen Peterson, director, with some of the members of the Junior Welfare group responsible for this project. Toy Library Will be Open on Saturday

Many new toys and dolls await the members of the Junior Welfare Toy Library, which will be open as usual this Saturday morning from 10 to 11:30 a.m.

Mrs. Helen T. Peterson, director, has expressed the appreciation of this group for the many contributions which have been made since Christmas. Anyone else who wishes to give toys for this project should leave them during the regular Saturday hours at the library, which is located in the cottage on the corner of Palm Canyon Drive and Alejo near the Frances Stevens school.

The rules of the Toy Library are few. For a membership fee of 25 cents a year, a child may take any toy home and enjoy it for a week, exchanging it at the end of that time for another. All children from pre-school through the primary grades are eligible.

The library is operated by the Junior Welfare group, which is composed of Junior and Senior school girls interested in community welfare. They are sponsored by the Welfare and Friendly Aid Association, one of the six Community Chest-sponsored agencies in Palm Springs.

Rotary Hears of Proposed Bond Election

City Manager Robert Peterson gave details of the coming city bond election to be held Feb. 14 at the Rotary club meeting here this week. Peterson, who is also a local Rotarian, explained that all of the proposed improvements would be financed by 20-year general obligation bonds except the sewerage system expansion which would be 25-year bonds.

The city manager pointed out that the seven proposed capital improvements would be voted on separately and that a two-thirds majority for each of the issues would be required for adoption.

He also called the attention of the Rotarians to the arrangement whereby bonds for the purchase of land would not be sold until negotiations for the purchase of the land had been completed. He said the most all of the improvements would cost taxpayers is 70 cents per $100 valuation but that it would likely run quite a bit less.

There were 66 visiting Rotarians and ten guests at the meeting, including Charles Wheeler of San Francisco, past president of Rotary International. The Rotarians meet at the Tennis club every Wednesday noon. The wives of visiting Rotarians are invited to meet with other Rotary Anns at the same time and quite a few join the group every week.

Harrison Leussler, a Palm Springs Rotarian, gave a talk on "Our Responsibility to our Community," and Program Chairman Don Miller was congratulated upon becoming the father of a boy born this week at Desert Hospital.

But Don't Try to Eat the Caps

BALTIMORE — Cottage cheese and gelatin not only make a good salad, but they help protect the flavor of your bottled beverages.

Casene, which is nothing more than dried cottage cheese, is one of the best binders for the composition cork used in bottle cap liners, according to food technologists of Crown Cork & Seal Co. here. And a gelatin similar to the eating type is used as a glue in the cork disc.

During every 24 hours your heart beats 103,689 times and your blood travels 168 miles.

All Girl Scouts and former Girl Scouts in the Palm Springs area have been invited to attend a rally in honor of Lady Baden Powell, whose late husband founded the world-wide Scout movement for boys and girls, at the Coachella Valley Union High School Saturday, starting at 10 a. m.

The Palm Springs Girl Scout group will co-host the rally with Coachella Valley and Banning Girl Scout groups.

There will be two sessions: 10-11:30 a. m., Brownie, Intermediate, Senior and Adult; 1-2:30 p. m., Adult and Senior.

New Car Influx Mark Set in '55

A record number of out-of-state automobiles rolled into California and the Southland during 1955, the Automobile Club of Southern California reported today.

Some 1,762,681 foreign cars, carrying 4,742,596 passengers, entered the State, 926,881 vehicles, with 2,504,426 persons, coming in at Southland points.

The former record was set in 1953 when 1,647,404 cars entered California, with Southland points accounting for 863,503 of them.

In the past decade, California auto influx has increased every year except in 1949 and 1954, the Club said.

Guests are Asked to Test Showers

WATERLOO, IA. — The management of the Hotel Russell Lamson asks guests to test the showers in each room.

Signs in each room point out "there is only one satisfactory way to test a shower and that is to be under it. It is obviously impractical for a hotel staff member to make this test."

"Will you, there fore, be kind enough to comment in the space below about the shower in this room and leave the card with the room clerk?"

Christmas Eve Armed Robbery Found to be Hoax

Solution of a Christmas Eve armed robbery at Smitty's Service Station, across the street from Laurie's Steak Ranch on Highway 111, was reported by sheriff's deputies last night and attributed to three Cathedral City boys, one 16 and two 17 years old.

The robbery, originally reported investigator Paul Lewis as perpetrated by a man dressed in a dark hat, overcoat and mask, was found to be erroneous.

The officers said the arrest of the youths, two of whom had never been in any trouble with police previously, solved the theft of $345 from the gas station.

It was found that no gun was used, nor was the threat of violence as originally reported. Vogelaar said the youths admitted fabricating the story. They were picked up as a result of investigation leads, and admitted the hoax under questioning.

A report, and the boys, have been turned over to California Juvenile Authority in Riverside County.

Site Changed for Programs

The Desert Museum, a Community Chest-sponsored agency, announced that beginning this Saturday evening all programs scheduled for the auditorium of Frances Stevens School will be transferred to the Museum auditorium.

Saturday's Field Trip will be in to Palm Canyon, with Little Paradise as the tentative destination.

There will be at least four hours of steady hiking involved in this trip which is not recommended for any persons unwilling or able to stay with the group. Departure time is set for 10 a. m. All participants will pay the Indian toll charge at the Museum and will receive a ticket entitling them to pass the toll gate.

Convict Arrested in Kidnap-Assault

MESA, Ariz. — A 33-year-old ex-convict who said he blacked out after picking up a child in his stolen auto was held today for investigation in the kidnap-assault of a seven-year-old girl.

Wayne V. Taylor was arrested by sheriff's deputies yesterday as he hid in brush about a mile from where blonde Carla Hixon was found unconscious in a desert wash. The girl disappeared Tuesday afternoon. She had been beaten brutally about the head and apparently molested sexually.

Carla told deputies a man forced her into his car when she refused his offer of a ride to her home.

In the past quarter century 20 to 25 million horses have been retired from American farms, saving enough food to feed approximately 90 million people.

Grone to Head Fund Drive of United Jewish Welfare

Max Grone has been named to head this year's campaign: "Build for Freedom: $56,000 for '56!"

THE CAMPAIGN will be short, climaxed in early February by a dinner party featuring a speaker expert in Middle East affairs.

Grone has been a resident here for six years, and has been active in civil affairs during that time. He is a member of the Palm Springs Masonic Lodge, a 32nd degree Mason, and an active member of the Palm Springs Shrine Club.

He is a member of the board of directors of the Jewish Community Center of Palm Springs, and is a past president of the Wednesday Night Club.

Other segments of the drive, including a Women's Division and Youth Division, will be announced shortly.

"WITH TENSION continuing to mount instead of abate in the Middle East, the UJA Drive is focusing on supplying funds to transport Jews from Arab countries—particularly North Africa—to Israel, thereby helping to relieve spots of conflict in the Arab world," Grone said.

"These constructive measures will require over one-quarter of the $105,000,000 campaign fund. This need has been expressed in our Palm Springs Division's slogan

Guild to Present Program Jan. 21

The Painters and Sculptors Guild of the Desert Art Center will present the world traveler, Wallace J. Hutchinson, on "The Near East" portrayed by color slides, at 8 p.m. Saturday, in the Parish House of the Episcopal Church, 125 West El Alameda.

The public is cordially invited. There is no admission charge.

Gold Specks Add Up to Big Money

FT. MADISON, IA. — Old payroll time cards are paying off again—this time for the employer. The paper time cards of employees in the gold nit department of the Sheaffer Pen Co. are burned to recover the gold that accumulates on the cards. It seems gold flecks stick to the hands of the men and women who grind and polish the gold points for pens and in turn is rubbed off on the cards which are handled several times a day.

Old payroll time cards, floor sweepings, wash water and workers' aprons and towels paid off in 1954 to the tune of over $235,000 in gold dust and other precious metals.

Rabbits have sharp but short distance eyesight. They can see well in almost a full circle.

No More Trains

SALEM, N. H. — When Frank J. Bemis, 85, sings "I've been working on the railroad," he really means it. Bemis is retiring as Boston & Maine freight agent at Salem Depot after 72 years of continuous service with railroads. He thinks that's a record.

Doodles

By ROGER PRICE

"TWO SHRIMPERS MEETING
FEZ TO FEZ?"
This Doodle prompted Dr.

Schwine to suggest at the last meeting of the F.S.T. (Flyin' Saucer Spotters of Terra) that the Fez be adopted as the Official Saucer Spotter's hat. He claimed that the Fez is not only distinctive but practical since it can be dipped in plaster and used as a flower pot when its wearing days are over. However, Dr. Kitzenger pointed out that a soft felt Fez offered no protection against the blast of a Martian Ray Gun and moved that we all wear what he does, a cast iron skillet with a chin strap. Personally I think both suggestions are ridiculous and I'm going to keep on wearing the same, dignified, conservative headgear I always wear—a yellow pom-pom!

TODAY'S SPORT PARADE

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer
Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

NEW YORK (AP) — Harry Mendel, a little fat man "without an enemy in the world," had a catch in his voice as he looked back on nearly a half century of sports.

Clutched proudly against his ample bosom was the plaque given him by the Boxing Writers Assn. Peeping over his pudgy fingers were the words: "For long and meritorious service to boxing."

"My dad told me a long time ago that you could pick up gold in the gutters of this country only people were too lazy to bend down," he smiled. "This is better than hitting an eight-horse parlay."

MENDEL, AT 62, is a boxing publicity man who has been on the sports scene since before the song "When You and I Were Young, Maggie" led the hit parade. He antedates the championship days of Jack Dempsey, and that's a lot of antedating.

"You wouldn't think to look at me," he grinned, jabbing a thumb against his 190 pounds on his five foot, two inch frame, "that I used to be able to chin myself 30 times. Now I can't hardly lift myself out of bed."

But the nimble brain which surmounts that bulky edifice is as good as ever. It still comes up with the publicity gags which help build boxing box office. Sometimes it even contributes to the fire inside the ring. Like in the case of Tony Galento when old "Two Ton" fought Joe Louis.

IT WAS MENDEL who suggested to Galento his famous line "I'll murder the bum." After the bout, Galento needed 38 stitches. Mendel asked Joe why he cut up Tony so badly.

"I was gonna let it go 15 rounds just so I could give him something to remember me by for calling me a bum," Joe growled.

Mendel kept quiet. Harry, who abandoned an office boy's job with an iron company to become a newspaperman, as his first boxing assignment covered the Dempsey-Fred Fulton bout at Harrison, N. J., in 1918. It lasted 18 seconds. His blow-by-blow account was:

to win the title and has seen them on win the title and has seen them all since then, even through the days when he was a six-day bike race promoter. And he lists Louis as the "greatest heavyweight I've ever seen although Benny Leonard was the best all-around fighter."

"The meanest fighter, and there's no close second," he insists, "was Galento. He'd butt a man just for the fun of it."

In recent years, Mendel has been a tub thumper at training camps for the International Boxing Club. He handled Roland LaStarza's camp for the bout with Rocky Marciano and enjoyed spending the IBC's money to take visitors to a night club known as the Riviera. When he turned in his expense account, the cashier exploded:

"Are you sure you didn't take these guys to the Riviera in France?"

A fast man, with greenbacks or gimicks. But for the first time in his life, the award has him almost speechless.

Souchak Tops Caliente Field with Opening 65

TIJUANA, Mex. (AP)—The second round of the 156,000 pesos Caliente Open Golf Tournament gets underway today with a fine field—all English-speaking—following on the heels of big Mike Souchak, the former football player.

No matter what happens in the next three days, Souchak already is a winner. He collected $250 U.S. Thursday for breaking the course record as he fired a seven-under-par 65 on a championship layout.

Despite his fine performance Thursday, Souchak doesn't have much of a lead. He is two strokes in front of the rest of the star-studded field. At 67 came Ralph Blomquist, Glendale, Calif., and Frank Stranahan, Toledo, Ohio, a pair of seasoned professionals, and 20-year-old Rod Funseth, a slender long-ball hitter from Spokane, Wash., who is an amateur.

SC Starts Hunt for New Coach

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A committee soon will start the hunt for a new head football coach at Southern California to replace Jess Hill after the 1956 season when he steps up to become Trojan athletic director.

President Fred D. Fagg Jr. of SC announced yesterday that Willis O. Hunter, SC athletic director for almost 31 years, will reach the university's mandatory retirement age of 65 in June, 1957. At that time Hill, 48, a former all-around athlete great at SC, will take over as athletic director.

In five seasons, Hill's teams have won 37 games, lost 16 and tied one for a 69.4 winning percentage. Two of his teams have gone to the Rose Bowl and he boasts the only Pacific Coast Conference victory over a Big Ten club since the conference began their Rose Bowl pact 10 years ago.

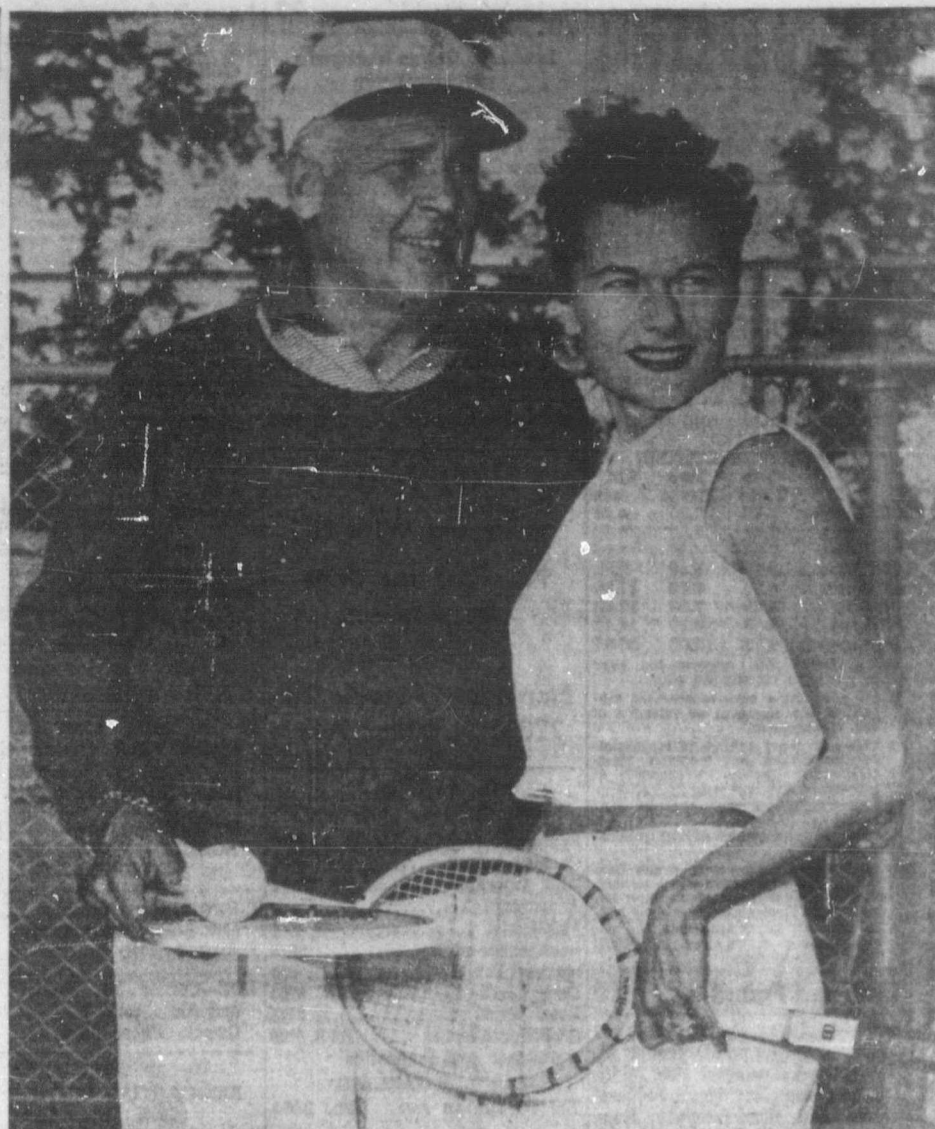

Hill's 1955 team lost four games and there was considerable criticism of him. The Trojans' resounding 42-20 upset of Notre Dame in the season finale stilled the criticism.

HEMET PROVIDES REAL TEST FOR INDIAN FIVE

By DAVE FISHER

The Hemet Bulldogs are next in line for the Palm Springs basketballers, who are in quest of their fourth straight Riverside county League victory. The Indians are fresh from a 74-56 win over Beaumont which placed the local quintet in a tie for the league's top spot with San Jacinto.

The big problem of Palm Springs tonight will be stopping Hemet's all-C.I.F. center, Ray Sims. For this task Coach Ralph Watt has named Sam Jones, the Indians' top defensive player. Sims has averaged better than 23 points a game in spite of a weak nine-point effort in his last outing. In his last big assignment Jones held down San Jacinto's high scorer, Jim Quast, to just 12 points and hopes are high that he will do a comparable job on Sims.

THE INDIANS' big offensive threat, Charles Jordan, tonight will have his opportunity to pass Sims for the league's high-scoring honors. Jordan, with 93 markers, trails the Hemet star by just one and will have the backboards almost to himself against the short Bulldog cagers.

In Tuesday night's game, Palm Springs came up with a new weapon that may be very effective against Hemet. Skip Martin hit for 11 points against Beaumont. Martin's shooting from the outside was phenomenal and this could be the one thing that will break the back of the Bulldog defense.

Starting for the Indians are: guards, Vic Reyes and Mickey Pelum; forwards, Sam Jones and O. B. Crawford; and center, Charles Jordan.

THE PRELIMINARY GAME should be a thriller. The Hemet B's are undefeated this season and have proven themselves as the best squad in the county by winning the Hemet B and C Tournament in early December. In the semifinals Hemet swamped the Palm Springs B's, however, since then the Indian team has improved greatly and it is expected that they will give the Bullsups a run.

Last Tuesday the Paposes coasted past Beaumont and are definitely pointing for this game. Opening up the game for Palm Springs will be: guards, Curtis Roberts and Eddie Tarr; forwards, Charles Brown and Don Burke; and center, Gary Waters.

Game time for the Varsity tilt is 8 p.m., while the B team is scheduled for 7. Going to the game from the local high school will be a roster's bus, in hopes that this will balance Hemet's home-court advantage.
